Jutsu

15+ EDIT

Jutsu (術, literally meaning: techniques/arts/skills) are the mystical arts that only a ninja can are said to be able to utilise in battle.[1] To use a jutsu, the ninja will need to use their chakra. To perform one, the Shinobi will bring out and release the two energies of chakra, then properly knead it for the intended effect.[2][3] By forming hand seals, the ninja is able to manifest the desired technique. Because of the extensive number of hand seals and different combinations, there are thousands of potential jutsu to be discovered.

Moulding chakra to create techniques.

Origins

Main article: Ninshū

Ninshū (忍宗, Viz: Ninja Creed, literally meaning: Shinobi Sect) is the religion and the peaceful precursor of modern ninjutsu created by Hagoromo Ōtsutsuki, the first one to understand and teach the mystery of chakra. The teachings of ninshū were meant to give people a better understanding of themselves, as well as others, and lead the world into an era of peace. Ninshū would eventually come to be known as ninjutsu, a more weaponised version of the Sage's teachings.

The Basics

Broadly, here are three basic types of techniques: ninjutsu, genjutsu and taijutsu.[1] Subcategories exist, including fūinjutsu, juinjutsu and senjutsu. There are also kekkei genkai abilities which aren't techniques, but inherited abilities passed down through certain clans (however, they can be used as base for certain techniques, such as Haku's Demonic Mirroring Ice Crystals). Kekkei genkai can also be attributed to certain parts of the body, such as dōjutsu.

Without proper control of their chakra, a ninja will produce ineffective or weakened technique which will lead to them running out of chakra early in a fight. To manipulate their chakra more easily, hand seals can be used. With these hand seals, users can control their chakra and technique with higher efficiency. Different techniques require different hand seals.

- E-rank - Learned by Academy students. Are the basic and most fundamental techniques for all ninja.
- D-rank - Genin-level techniques. Can be achieved by all genin, though many ninja only learn their "type" of technique.
- C-rank - Chūnin-level techniques. Sometimes learned by genin who have trained extensively.
- B-rank - Jōnin-level techniques. Require high levels of chakra to use.
- A-rank - Kage or jōnin-level techniques. Require great control over one's chakra and may be forbidden.
- S-rank - Secret, extreme level techniques. Are typically unique to a single user.

Kekkei Genkai and unique abilities normally do not have a rank.

Main Jutsu Types

Ninjutsu

Main article: Ninjutsu

Ninjutsu (忍術, English TV: Ninja Art, literally meaning: Ninja Techniques) is one of the three main jutsu categories. Ninjutsu is the most nebulous of the three, and may most simply be described as anything that is not genjutsu or taijutsu. Most ninjutsu require chakra and hand seals, but this is not always the case since the mere usage of weaponry qualifies as ninjutsu.

Genjutsu

Main article: Genjutsu

Genjutsu (幻術, literally meaning: Illusionary Techniques) is one of the main jutsu categories which uses chakra. Unlike ninjutsu, the effects of genjutsu are not real, being only sensory illusions experienced by those who fall victim to it, such as hypnosis and hallucinations.[4] According to the Second Mizukage, genjutsu falls under the broad category of Yin Release.[5]

Taijutsu

Main article: Taijutsu

Taijutsu (体術, literally meaning: Body Techniques), also known as "Ninja Kata" (忍者組み手, Ninja Kumite)[6][1] is a basic form of techniques and refers to any techniques involving the martial arts or the optimisation of natural human abilities. Taijutsu is executed by directly accessing the user's physical and mental energies, relying on the stamina and strength gained through training. It typically does not require chakra, though chakra may be used to enhance its techniques. Taijutsu generally requires no hand seals to perform, occasionally making use of certain stances or poses, and are far quicker to use than ninjutsu or genjutsu. Taijutsu is, simply put, hand-to-hand combat.

Main article: Barrier Ninjutsu

Barrier ninjutsu (結界忍術, Kekkai Ninjutsu, literally meaning: Barrier Ninja Techniques)[7] are techniques that impose an effect upon a defined space.

Bukijutsu

Main article: Bukijutsu

A ninja's use of weaponry in combat is known as "bukijutsu" (武器術, literally meaning: Weapon Techniques). All ninja use a weapon at some point in their careers, but not all do so regularly.

Chakra Absorption Techniques

Main article: Chakra Absorption Techniques

Chakra absorption techniques (チャクラ吸引術, Chakura Kyūin Jutsu, English TV: Chakra Absorption Jutsu)[8] allow the user to absorb the chakra of another individual - usually an opponent's - and utilise it as if it were their own.

Chakra Flow

Main article: Chakra Flow

Chakra Flow (チャクラ流し, Chakura Nagashi) refers to both the flowing of chakra through an object as well as any technique that increases the potency of a weapon by flowing chakra through it. Ordinarily, elemental chakra is used to flow through bladed weapons in order to either, dramatically increase their various pre-existing properties, or to gain additional advantageous effects. Usually, the user must be touching the tool to initiate chakra flow but not always as with the Fire Release: Phoenix Sage Flower Nail Crimson technique, and direct contact with the weapon is not necessary to maintain chakra flow. Similarly, techniques such as Kakuzu's Earth Release: Earth Spear, Rōshi's Lava Release Chakra Mode and the Fourth Raikage's Lightning Release Chakra Mode are used to increase close-quarter combat offence and defence by flowing chakra directly through the user's body. However, whether through an individual's body or weapon, the exact effects observed are entirely dependent upon the respective nature and amount of the chakra used.

Clone Techniques

Main article: Clone Techniques

Clone techniques (分身術, Bunshinjutsu) are techniques that create copies of the user or their tools. Though the standard Clone Technique is considered the most basic of ninjutsu, these techniques are highly versatile, often used to distract enemies or fool them into thinking they have landed a hit on the user. Corporeal clones can aid the user in physical combat, and even use techniques independent of the original. There are varying methods of creating clones, some techniques using only chakra while others require some sort of medium to give the clones form and substance. There are also clone techniques that transform another person or animal into a clone of the user, such as the Beast Human Clone, as well as genjutsu which create illusory clones, such as the Mist Servant Technique.[9]

Fūinjutsu

Main article: Fūinjutsu

Fūinjutsu (封印術, English TV: Sealing Jutsu, literally meaning: Sealing Techniques) are a type of jutsu that seal objects, living beings, chakra, along with a wide variety of other things within another object, usually using sealing formula (封印式, fūin-shiki).[10] Fūinjutsu can also be used to restrict movement or unseal objects either from within something or someone.

Gelel Techniques

Main article: Gelel Techniques

These techniques are produced from those imbued with the Stone of Gelel (ゲレルの石, Gereru no Ishi) featured only in Naruto the Movie: Legend of the Stone of Gelel. Unlike ninjutsu or any chakra-based jutsu, these abilities do not use chakra but instead the life energy from the Gelel stones. Those who use these stones do not practition in the arts of the shinobi. However, it was also possible to incorporate Gelel energy into ninjutsu.

Hiden

Main article: Hiden

Hiden (秘伝, literally meaning: secret tradition) or simply "secret" techniques are passed down from generation to generation in certain regions or clans. Alternatively, they can also be the result of bodily experimentation and thus cannot be simply replicated.[11][12]

The groups who possess these techniques are usually extremely secretive about them in order to ensure that no one other than the members of the group or clan learns them. As such, they are passed down through oral means instead of being written down or recorded. A few hiden techniques require a special ability or lineage and as such are usually the pride and fame of the clan that possesses them.

Juinjutsu

Main article: Juinjutsu

Juinjutsu (呪印術, Viz: Curse Mark Jutsu, literally meaning: Cursed Seal Techniques) are a type of techniques used to bring someone under the control of the user. By applying a seal to the victim's body, the user brings the victim's abilities and actions under their control.

Jujutsu

Main article: Jujutsu

Jujutsu (呪術, Viz: Curse Jutsu, literally meaning: Curse Technique) are a type of techniques that harm the enemy by cursing them. They work similar to juinjutsu, however, the user doesn't have to apply a seal on the enemy to curse them.

Kenjutsu (剣術, literally meaning: Sword Technique) pertains to techniques that entail the use of swords, whether the users be shinobi, or samurai. Kenjutsu can be used in combination with taijutsu, ninjutsu, fūinjutsu, chakra flow and even genjutsu in order to achieve more devastating techniques. It is regarded as a branch of bukijutsu.

Kinjutsu

Main article: Kinjutsu

Kinjutsu (禁術, literally meaning: Forbidden Techniques) are techniques that have been banned from being taught or used.

Medical Ninjutsu

Main article: Medical Ninjutsu

Medical ninjutsu (医療忍術, Iryō Ninjutsu, literally meaning: Medical Ninja Techniques) is a branch of ninjutsu associated with healing, as well as the manipulation of their own, or another's body, practised by shinobi categorised as "medical-nin". The use of medical ninjutsu requires very advanced chakra control, as well as extensive knowledge[13] on such things as herbs, medicines, the human body and even poisons.

Ninshū

Main article: Ninshū

Ninshū (忍宗, Viz: Ninja Creed, literally meaning: Shinobi Sect) is the religion and the peaceful precursor of modern ninjutsu created by Hagoromo Ōtsutsuki, the first one to understand and teach the mystery of chakra. Nintaijutsu

Main article: Nintaijutsu

Nintaijutsu (忍体術, literally meaning: Ninja Body Techniques)[14] is a term used to describe the fighting style that incorporates the use of ninjutsu and taijutsu. More specifically, it is characterised as increasing the speed and strength of taijutsu via Nature Transformation.[15] This fighting style is most prominent in Kumogakure,[14] with the Third[16] and Fourth Raikage being its foremost users. By surrounding themselves in their Lightning Release Chakra Mode, the two's strength, durability, speed, and reflexes are augmented to an exceptional degree.

Scientific Ninja Tool Techniques

Main article: Scientific Ninja Tool Techniques

These are jutsu [Notes 1] utilising Scientific Ninja Tools (科学忍具, Kagaku Ningu), which are technologically advanced weaponry. Some affiliated with Kara have had microscopic Scientific Ninja Tools integrated into their bodies, allowing them to alter their limbs or prosthetics that allow them to shoot beams of chakra.

Senjutsu

Main article: Senjutsu

Senjutsu (仙術, English TV: Sage Jutsu, literally meaning: Sage Techniques) are a specialised field of jutsu that involve the use of natural energy. Senjutsu practitioners, known as sages, learn to draw natural energy inside their bodies, blending it with their own chakra to create senjutsu chakra (仙術チャクラ, senjutsu chakura, English TV: Sage Jutsu Chakra). This chakra adds a new dimension of power to the user's techniques, while also allowing for the use of techniques that would not otherwise be possible.

Shinjutsu

Main article: Shinjutsu

Shinjutsu (神術, literally meaning: Divine Techniques) are chakra-based techniques of the highest order, mainly used by members of the Ōtsutsuki clan. These jutsu, which are unlike ninjutsu or senjutsu, require no hand seals to be performed and enable users to bring upon phenomena resembling "the works of gods" (御業, miwaza). Amado considers ninjutsu as attempts at reproducing the effects of shinjutsu.[17]

Shurikenjutsu

Main article: Shurikenjutsu

Shurikenjutsu (手裏剣術, literally meaning: concealed hand blade techniques) pertains to techniques that entail the throwing of shuriken, kunai, senbon, or any other number of bladed, hand-held weapons. Shurikenjutsu can be used in combination with taijutsu, ninjutsu, and/or chakra flow in order to create more devastating techniques. Additionally, shurikenjutsu can pertain to techniques used through ninjutsu-made weapons.

Space–Time Ninjutsu

Main article: Space–Time Ninjutsu

Space–Time Ninjutsu (時空間忍術, Jikūkan Ninjutsu, English TV: "Teleportation Ninjutsu" or "Transportation Techniques", literally meaning: Space–Time Ninja Techniques)[18] are techniques that allow the users to manipulate the space–time continuum.

Kekkei Genkai (血継限界, literally meaning: Bloodline Limit) are DNA anomalies that allow their wielders to use unique techniques or other special abilities, generally inherited only by those of the same bloodline.[19] A kekkei genkai's name describes both the anomaly and the resulting technique. Most kekkei genkai are passed down between generations of a clan, an exception being Hashirama Senju's Wood Release. Likewise, most individuals with kekkei genkai only inherit one kekkei genkai, however this is not always the case.

Kekkei Tōta

Main article: Kekkei Tōta

Kekkei Tōta (血継淘汰, literally meaning: Bloodline Selection) is an advanced branch of jutsu that is more advanced than the jutsu class of kekkei genkai.[20] The only known example is Dust Release, a combination of three different nature transformations — earth, wind, and fire.

Kekkei Mōra

Main article: Kekkei Mōra

Kekkei Mōra (血継網羅, literally meaning: Bloodline Encompassing) is an advanced branch of jutsu unique to Kaguya Ōtsutsuki and her direct bloodline.

Dōjutsu

Main article: Dōjutsu

Dōjutsu (瞳術, English TV: Visual Jutsu, literally meaning: Pupil Techniques) are ninja abilities that utilise the eyes, a by-product of specific kekkei genkai or kekkei mōra. The word refers to both the eyes themselves, which have a number of passive abilities, and any jutsu dependent on the eyes to be performed; the former requires little to no chakra to be used, while the latter varies depending on the technique. Dōjutsu can be transplanted into others, though use of the dōjutsu is typically more limited or taxing for those without a genetic predisposition for it.[21]

Trivia

- Early English volumes of the Naruto series occasionally referred to jutsu under the blanket terms of "spells" and "illusions".
- In the novels, some jutsu are classified as Tonjutsu (遁術, literally meaning: Escape Techniques).[citation needed]
